

ST. SAVIOUR'S

Peace be with you!!

Dear Friends, Greetings!

As we continue our Easter sojourn, we read how the resurrected Jesus appears, and the first words Offered to those whom Jesus encounter is; PEACE BE WITH YOU. When the resurrected Christ appears, one gets the sense that those who Jesus appears too, are fearful and frightened, and so when Jesus greets them, with a peace greeting, Jesus comes and offers peace amidst fear. Its this acknowledgment of fear which really sets the tone for the work of the risen Christ, a Christ who enters into vulnerable spaces and brings about new life.

As we encounter these appearances of the resurrected Christ in the sacred texts, we are invite to recognises those things, people, or situations which we are fearful of. We are so too reminded that if we face our fears, with Jesus, rather than alone, Jesus enters those space speaking and being peace.

We notice how Jesus brings those words of Peace to life, by inviting those whom are scared to touch and feel him, but more so Jesus request something to eat-Jesus shares in a meal, Jesus enters into communion with those who are filled with fear.

Your and my fears are quelled once we reach out and touch Jesus, our fears are quelled when we enter into communion with Jesus.

As we recognise that which we are fearful of, we are invited to recognise the Jesus of peace, a pace that goes beyond all of our understanding.

Friends, as we today are reminded about this gift of peace, may acknowledge Jesus in our lives, may we accept the peace offered by Jesus, and may we strive to live in faith rather than in fear. As we strive to renew our community, let us not be guided by fear but rather encouraged by Peace.

God Bless.

Fr. Chesnay Frantz

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Risen Christ,
 you revealed yourself to the disciples
 and calmed their fears:
 meet us in our uncertainties and walk with us into the new life you bring;
 for you live and reign with the Father
 and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.
 Amen.
