

ST. SAVIOUR'S

Dear Friends and Family of St. Saviour's. Greetings!

With October arriving almost sneakily upon us, I find myself preparing for Advent already. I cannot believe it; however, there is still so much happening before then: we have our Parish Picnic, our Morning Market, a planned quiet morning, the licensing of 3 new lay ministers and various other activities aimed at reinforcing the gift of Community, a gift which this Parish has for decades been pioneering. I invite anybody with more ideas around strengthening community through a variety of activities, to please contact me. Let's talk!

With all of this in the background, I spent a considerable amount of time these past few days praying for our Country, and quite intentionally, praying for our City. This is as election mood grips us. I am dismayed and anxious about the kind of promises I hear politicians make. Politicians are promising to do things which for the last decade or so, they were unable to do because of continued looting, racist attitudes and simply put: SELF ENRICHMENT.

My prayer is that we remain vigilant during this electioneering season and seek ways of holding our elected officials accountable for the promises made during this season. If I'm allowed to use an expression which so many young people use these days, and I hope I'm using it in its appropriate context: let's stay WOKE!

I invite you to spend time in prayer with me as we pray for this season of elections and as we consider the weight of our cross which we will make on the election ballot paper, let us pray the prayer: for those who influence public opinion, found on page 88 of An Anglican Prayer Book.

Almighty God, you proclaim your truth in every age by many voices: Direct, in our time, we pray, those who speak where many listen and write what many read; that they may do their part in making the heart of this people wise, its mind sound, and its will righteous; to the honour of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

News from the Rectory: this week we had PANCAKES... Noah has his first tooth. We had an enjoyable afternoon with members of Parish Council at the inaugural OPEN RECTORY, with Sarah taking the opportunity to charge members of PC to accompany her on a tour of the Rectory. (Businesswoman in the making)!

Stay safe.

God Bless.

Fr. Chesnay Frantz
