

ST. SAVIOUR'S

Dear Friends and Family of St. Saviour's. Greetings!

This week saw the birth of a new Church service at St. Saviour's Parish: we have added to our 2 Eucharist services on a Sunday and Wednesday Eucharist, a contemplative prayer service.

Laurence Freeman writes, "We meditate in this world. Our decision to meditate represents a commitment to participate responsibly even in a world going mad. Meditation trains discernment and limits intolerance. Each time we sit to meditate we carry our own and the world's baggage into the work of attention. It is a way of loving the world we are part of and contributing to its well-being. Precisely because it is a way of letting go of ourselves meditation helps us to share the burden of humanity."

I continue to invite friends of the Parish and strangers to our Parish, to join this service, as a means of reconnecting with ourselves, God and our neighbour. Pray and the expression thereof is pivotal to our journey of faith and as we look at reigniting this community, we are called to do so through prayer. As we deepen our prayer life, may we allow the Holy Spirit to guide our actions and direct our thoughts; So please extend this invitation to prayer to all whom you encounter.

At the rectory, teeth are causing what someone termed a 'rectory pandemic': Noah has two top teeth coming out, Sarah has a loose tooth, and I need 4 wisdom teeth removed. Other than that, we are well and so excited for our first experience at St. Saviour's Mini Morning Market, where we will hopefully meet many friends of the Parish.

Stay safe.

God Bless.

Fr. Chesnay Frantz
